

The Stronger The Take On The Harder The Road

Everybody knows and fat Ladies sing
You can't have too much of that same old thing
You can say it's a pity if it's not a sin
It will turn you out if it don't do you in

I had me a wife but I just could'nt keep her
When she wanted me back I was not to eager
I built her a house and she just would not live there
No matter how I tried I never could please her

B: I never drank anything harder
Than moonshine and hootch
Don't play nothing heavier
Than Rhytm & Blues
I never smoked anything stronger
Than the soles of my shoes
And I never fell harder
Than when I fell in love with her

And it slipped through my fingers that silver and gold
It never was mine to have and to hold
I gave away my heart but she wanted my soul
And I left her before my love turned cold

Love can make you drink and stay out late
And break every promise that you've made
Carry your load or lay down the weight
Love can make you change in so many ways

B: I never drank anything harder
Than moonshine and hootch
Don't play nothing heavier
Than Rhytm & Blues
I never smoked anything stronger
Than the soles of my shoes
But I never fell harder
Than when I fell in love with her

I've been put over and I've been left out
I guess you all know what I'm talking about
Learned my lesson and there's one thing I know
The stronger the take on the harder the road
The stronger the take on the harder the road
The stronger the take on the harder the road