

Uden Titel:

I can ride a boat navigate a plane
Rob a car and drive a train
Roll the dice and turn a game
I can spell a song and talk your name

I can dodge my dues and write a bill
Bend the rules and not have my will Read The Good Book and be ignorant still Change my name why don't you call me Bill

Omvæd:

I can follow baby you wherever you go
Track you down and win your love
Rock you honey both to and fro
And steal right back whatever I owe

I can name all fingers and point out names
Count my toes and swallow flames
If they lock me up and put me in chains
I'd fool everybody like Jesse James

I can keep it up and lay real low
And change your money into dough
Hide whatever you want me to show
And tell you things you don't wanna know

Omkvæd:

I can be your second cousin and your uncle too.
The seventh son and a brother to you.
I don't know when and I don't know why.
But your mother's gonna weep and daddy will cry.

Mama' s gonna weep and daddy will cry.
